FEED A FAMILY FOR A DAY

We Fed Many Families!

Thanks to the generosity of the youth and children of CHS (and their parents), we have made many families very happy. At this time I do not know exactly how many pounds of food we were able to donate, but I do know how happy the Food Pantry was every time we made a delivery. John and I want to thank everyone who contributed to the pantry at this time of great need.

God Bless YOU, Every One!

The Seder

Thursday, April 9th 6:30 p.m.

The Jewish Passover Seder is a feast held to celebrate the Exodus of the Jewish slaves from the land of Pharaoh. It is an occasion for praise and thanksgiving with the reading the Haggadah in a family-based ritual stemming from the Biblical verse:

"and you shall tell it to your son on that day, saying, 'because of what this God did for me when He took me out of Egypt'" (Exodus 13:8)

The words and rituals of the Seder are a primary vehicle for the transmission of the Jewish faith from parent to child, and from one generation to the next.

We will hold our own CHS Seder on Maundy Thursday with the telling of the Passover story

Church FAQs: Easter Vigil

Since Ash Wednesday, we have entered into the darkness of Lent, and will soon experience the darkest day of Christianity, the Crucifixion of the Son of God. On Holy Saturday eve, we will celebrate the first service of Easter, the Great Easter Vigil. Historically, this service is the oldest in the church, and in the manner of the Christmas Eve service, was held after the setting of the sun, in darkness and in secret for fear of persecution. While we will start our worship while it is still daylight, the intention is still the same: to celebrate the Resurrection of Our Lord.

The Easter Vigil service transports us spiritually and dramatically from the dark of Good Friday to the Light of Christ on Easter, the new fire which will light our way as we re-tell the Old Testament stories from the time of Noah and Moses and then to hear the Word of God in the Gospel. We will celebrate the Risen Lord by receiving His body and blood and joyfully sing "Jesus Christ Is Risen Today" to praise God for His gift to us. In the ancient church, this was a time for Baptism, for welcoming new members into that special society, the followers of Jesus.

If you have never attended this very important service of the church year, make it a point to be there this year. If you attend the Seder on Maundy Thursday or the service day and meditations of Good Friday, the Easter Vigil is a must for lifting the soul out of the doldrums and darkness of Lent. And lest we forget, bring bells with you. You'll find out why on Saturday, April 11 at 7:30 p.m.

Marge Keller

From the Rector's Desk

The command to observe Sabbath, tells us, "Thou shalt not work." It does not say, "Thou shalt not play." Dorothy Sayers-wonderful author of fiction but even more luminous in her theological reflections-observes that for two thousand years the Church has struggled mightily to remove the unfortunate accusations about her Lord, the chief complaints about him being a sabbath-breaker, and a gluttonous man-friend of sinner and publican. The Church would hustle out the Magdalans, form abstinence societies in the name of the one who made water wine, and add bans and anathemas to all things from dancing and card-playing to theater-going. Such efforts have placed a stranglehold on words like virtue and morality. As C.S. Lewis writes in his brilliant Mere Christianity,

"The sins of the flesh are bad, but they are the least bad. All the worst pleasures are purely spiritual: the pleasure of putting other people in the wrong, of bossing and spoiling sport, and back-biting, the pleasures of power, of hatred. That is why a cold, self-righteous prig who goes regularly to church may be far nearer to hell than a prostitute. But, of course, it is better to be neither."

Classic spry Lewis-that last part. The sadness of the Good Friday retelling finds its proper grounds in the Easter garden of delight. We Christians are built to rejoice. The Sabbath was made for joy not a punitive halt to fun. Sundays therefore, must, follow in suit otherwise they are counterfeit attempts for piety. The days ahead are about celebration. Little girls that skip know a secret. Skipping is not a sign of a glib superficial mind, but of a heart that glows with the love of the world around them and a love inside that makes the feet dance for pleasure. Skipping isn't the fastest way to go from A to B, and you'll never see it as a competition in the Olympics. But there is something deeply sacred about it. Consider the empty tomb. When the scared women ran from the tomb, as they lost their fear, did their feet turn to a skip?

Holy Spirited Meals

The Holy Spirit Meals Ministry is alive and well!

The freezer is full of wonderful homemade meals, so if you or anyone you know is in need of a meal due to surgery, illness, accident or a new baby, please let us know. You may take meals with you after Sunday services, but please sign the chart located on the top of the freezer so we can keep track of our inventory.

If you need a meal delivered, please contact:
 Judy Emmitt at 236-2155,
 Liz Cannizzaro at 782-9875 or
 Sharon Wood at 713-0963.

CHS IS HAVING A RAFFLE!

Buy a chance to win a
Hand-Crocheted Blanket

The colorful blanket was crocheted by the women in Maximum Security within the Edna Mahan prison. It was blessed by our Bishop George E. Cuncell during his recent visit. He has given us the first $100 to get us started with this most worthwhile endeavor.

Tickets are $2 each or 3 tickets for $5 and are available in the Narthex. The proceeds will benefit the Shawl Ministry. The drawing will be held at the April 25th Service Auction.

Deacon Johnine & Donna Lachenmayr

From the Deacon's Corner

Dear Seekers,

The Bishop's Visit....A True Celebration!

Our bishop, George E. Cuncell, joined me to visit the women in Maximum Security at the Edna Mahan prison. The women had a glorious time and were clearly overjoyed, humbled and thankful that the bishop took time out of his busy schedule to come and visit with them. For as you might surmise, these women do not have many visitors.

The day began with the women arriving early to make sure that the room was clean. Some even curled their hair and wore makeup! The women had made the Bishop a beautiful hand-made card with praying hands on the front, which they each signed with a little note. One woman made him tissue flowers and another crocheted a scarf made of three different shades of tan and brown. We called it Cappuccino! I had all of the women touch the Bishop's shoulder while he was wearing the new scarf and one of the women prayed a mighty prayer to God on his behalf. Bishop George E. Cuncell was really thunderstruck by their generosity.

At the end of the two hour visit, the Bishop blessed the completed shawls and the raffle blanket. He proceeded to say that he would like to start off our raffle by purchasing $100 worth of tickets. We were all awed by his expression of generosity.

What permeated the room that day was the spirit of joy and thankfulness for all of God's gifts. So as you can tell by my thoughts, it was a perfect visit from start to finish.

Let us continue to remember in our thoughts, our prayers and our actions, the least, the lost and the forgotten in society.

Thank you for your prayers.

I faithfully remain your Deacon,

Johnine

BAKERS, CRAFTERS and BUYERS NEEDED!

Saturday, April 11th

The Good News Home for Women is having its annual bake and craft sale on Saturday, April 11th. This is one of their principal fund raisers and they, once again, are asking for our help in providing home made goodies—baked goods or crafts—to sell. If you can bring them to CHS on our Good Friday Service Day on April 10th, Sandy Burton will see that they are delivered to GNH. Also patronize them at the two Walmart stores in Clinton or Whitehouse on April 11th for those last minute goodies that you need for your Easter celebration.

If you have any questions, contact Sandy at 236-6980 or barbandsandy@embarqmail.com.

Seder

and eating of several traditional foods:

- Matzo—the unleavened bread the Hebrews took with them on their flight from Egypt
- Maror (bitter herbs) which symbolize the bitterness of slavery
- Charoset which represents the mortar that the Jewish slaves used to cement bricks
- Salt water to recall the tears shed by the Jews during their time of slavery

This very special celebration of the Word will take place in the Parish Hall. We will then proceed to the Sanctuary to celebrate the Holy Eucharist as Jesus Christ has instructed us to do along with the Stripping of the Altar. The silent vigil in the Garden, arranged in the Church this year, continues from 9:00 p.m. to Midnight. To fully experience Maundy Thursday in this manner is to develop a greater understanding of the last hours of our Lord Jesus before the betrayal and Crucifixion.

Sign-up sheets for the Seder and the Garden of Gethsemane Watch will be in the Narthex. Please consider a donation for the cost of the meal: $10/adult and $5/children or $25/family.

WORDS FROM OUR SENIOR WARDEN

Our Diocesan Convention took place in February in Wildwood, New Jersey. My car buddies included Deacon Johnine Byrer, Pat Egan and Arden Olson, with Father Philip following close behind. I love spending quality time with my CHS family. I always learn something new and special about the people that I am around.

The convention theme this year was, "Revive Us Again." After celebrating the Eucharist with all the parishes, Bishop George Councill gave an inspiring address. I cannot explain what I felt upon hearing his sermon, but I can only urge you to read it for yourself. You can find his address at the diocesan website: newjersey.anglican.org.

Bishop Councill expressed how blessed he was to have been given a three month sabbatical. During this time, he climbed part of Mt. Kilimanjaro, toured some national parks in the region of Tanzania and hiked the Camino in Spain. One part of his address that I would like to share came from the words of a young African pastor:

"I won't give up, shut up, let up, until I have stayed up, stored up, prayed up, paid up, preached-up for the cause of Christ. I am a disciple of Jesus. I must go 'til He comes, give 'til I drop, preach 'til all know, and work 'til He stops me. And when He comes, He will have no problem recognizing me."

That is how Bishop Councill intends to serve, 'til He tells him to stop. How about you?

Another highlight from the convention was when our Deacon Johnine was recognized for her Prison Ministry. She gave a short and sweet report on a committee of seven individuals made up of both lay (including our parishioner Hal Murray) and clergy. This group meets in Bordentown and is beginning to organize a Ministry to serve the incarcerated within the Diocese of New Jersey. There are fourteen prisons in the state and thirteen of them are housed in our Diocese. As Deacon Johnine reported, there is clearly a need to visit those in prison and committed volunteers are great. I was thrilled that many people approached her throughout the convention to express interest in this ministry. If you feel the same, please see Johnine or Hal Murray for more information.

As a follow-up, I created a binder of reports from the convention plus the results of the voting for offices. The binder is available in the Narthex. In addition, please consider attending the Confirmation scheduled for June 14th when Bishop George Councill will be confirming our youth.

WE'RE GETTING TO KNOW EACH OTHER!

A Special Thank You!

I want to give you all a BIG HUG and a THANK YOU for being so great about wearing name tags the last couple of Sundays. Very often we hear a parishioner's name but are unable to identify that person within CHS. The name tags will help us in "putting a name to a face." They will also be helpful to all of the wonderful people we are so honored to have visit CHS for the first time!

Let's continue this positive expression of hospitality and love.

IMPORTANT DATES TO REMEMBER....

June 14- Confirmation

July 25 - August 1 - Sr. High Gulf Coast Mission Trip

The Mission of the Church of the Holy Spirit is to know Christ as we serve others, proclaim His love, and grow in His Spirit.

STEWARDSHIP COMMISSIONING BLESSING

Stewardship.....What does it mean? It means giving back the gifts God has given to you. They can be in the form of money, time or talent. All of these gifts are so important and need to be recognized. Stewardship does not begin or end when you give your donation in the plate on Sundays. Nor does it begin or end with your donation to the Stewardship Drive.

It happens every day in our lives. It defines who we are! Through your daily roles and responsibilities, God is alive and at work. CHS wants to recognize you for your gifts in a Commissioning Blessing. This will take place during normal services on the second Sunday of each month. Below is the monthly schedule for the remainder of the year and each month's corresponding role.

We will be recognizing people who.....

- Are in the Financial field: Accountants, Lawyers, Tax Professionals & Pension Consultants (April)
- Nurture: Mothers, Caretakers, Childcare Providers & Babysitters (May)
- Care for Others: Doctors, Nurses & those in the Health Care Industry (June)
- Work seasonally like summer employees/employers (July)
- Are in the Building/Construction trade (August)
- Teach in schools, churches or other teaching environments (September)
- Fix/repair appliances, broken equipment, cars or those in the plumbing trade (October)
- Are in the Food Industry: Restaurants, School Cafeterias and Grocery Stores (November)
- Are in Sales for clothing, furniture, services & homes (December)

Please come forward and accept your blessing. If you are unsure where you fit in, come forth anyway! God Bless.

Katie Gnash

Calling All Green Thumbs

Let's work together to keep the CHS grounds beautiful

Please consider adopting a plot of land to keep beautiful for all to see and admire. Some possible areas are the Memorial Garden, the parking lot planters and the flower beds. This will take some time and effort, but the rewards for the entire community will be immeasurable.

If you are interested in helping with this endeavor, please contact the church office at 236-6301 or Jim West, the Property and Grounds Vestry Member, at 534-6963.

Thank you for your consideration in this new ministry.

Deacon Johnine

GOT CHANGE??

You will see a batch of small, plastic containers in the Narthex to be used to collect your spare change. The change will be collected on the first Sunday of the month. Proceeds from the "Got Change" initiative will be used to augment one of the community ministries. So, if you will, please keep your spare change so that we may help others in need at this time.

Thank you so much.

Deacon Johnine

HOUSEKEEPING NOTES

Please be sure to empty all garbage cans after any function at the church. Fresh garbage bags should be placed in the cans to prepare for the next gathering. And all garbage should be placed in the dumpster.

Thanks so much!

Liz Cannizzaro

DOGGIE SURPRISES

Thank you to the individual who gave me the darling beige puppy socks, which I found on my desk. I also found dog treats in my church mailbox. Our puppy, Sienna, has been enjoying them.

Thank you both!

Deacon Johnine

A Verger's Role in the Episcopal Church

A verger is a committed lay minister within the Church who assists the clergy in the conduct of public worship, especially in the marshalling of processions and in the preparations and execution of the liturgy.

The office of verger has its roots in the earliest days of the Church's history. It shares certain similarities with the former minor holy orders of porter and acolyte and has been maintained in the Anglican Church as far back as the 16th century.

The term “verger” refers to the “virge” or staff that the verger carries in procession. The name comes from the Latin virga which simply means a rod or staff; hence, a verger is one who carries a staff. The verger is dressed in special vesture to represent their ministry at the Altar of God in the Church of the Holy Spirit. Beginning on Passion (Palm) Sunday, we will begin utilizing the service of a verger at the 10:15 a.m. Eucharist. Our verger will truly represent the motto of the Vergers Guild of the Episcopal Church, Servitas in culu et cultus per servitatem – Service in worship and worship through service.
