Welcome Back Sunday & Picnic

Sunday, September 7

Make room on your fall schedule for our Welcome Back Sunday and Picnic on Sunday, September 7 following the 10:15 a.m. service. Come and reconnect with friends, greet new members and bring a friend to worship and share in the fellowship of our church.

As part of Welcome Back Sunday, our Christian education programs, including Sunday School and Adult Education, will kick off and there will be a continental breakfast between services.

The picnic will include hot dogs, hamburgers, condiments and drinks; and games for children of all ages. You are asked to bring salads and dessert, and a welcoming spirit. Also feel free to bring beer or wine to share.

To be mindful of the needs of others...

September is breakfast month

We are still trying to fill our CHS baskets for the Food Pantries in Flemington and High Bridge. You may have seen the recent article in the Hunterdon County Democrat concerning the dire situation at the High Bridge food pantry. The cupboards are BARE! As long as the economy is in a slump, the need for pantries to help feed more families will continue to increase.

We, who have so much, need to help those who, due to circumstances beyond their control, have so little. The reward of doing good deeds is in knowing that you have helped someone else.

For this church year, we will designate each month for particular categories of need. We ask that you bring your donation at least once a month on Breakfast Sunday. This should make it easier to remember this ministry. Of course, your donation of any food and household products will be welcome on any Sunday!

Church FAQs:

I prefer not to receive the Chalice. What should I do?

At Communion, you may receive the bread and the wine or just the bread. If you prefer to not receive the Chalice, you may cross your arms on your chest. This will let the LEM know to not bring you the cup.

How should one instinct?

Some folks prefer to instinct (touch the bread to the wine) rather than to receive directly from the Chalice. Once you have been given the bread, hold it up for the LEM to see and he/she, in turn, will lower the cup for you to touch the wine. Dip your bread into the cup so that the tip touches the wine.

Tip for receiving the Chalice

When you are offered the Chalice, you can assist the LEM by taking the base of the Chalice in your hand and guiding the cup to your lips. This assures that you actually get the wine as it is often difficult for the LEM to know if the wine reached your lips or not. It is perfectly OK for you to hold the Chalice and it helps the LEM do his/her job in the distribution of the element of the Holy Eucharist.

From the Rector's Desk

The calmest, most decent people, as a class, that I have had the good fortune to know, are airline pilots. I have had the pleasure of calling several my friends, and without exception, I find them to be really fine human beings. Among them they have their stories of the difficult ones, but, by and large, my gross observation holds up. It has something to do with the work environment.

A flight anywhere at 30,000 feet for any length of time is an act of perspective. Going across country or across regions allows for a higher appreciation for landscapes, and a better context for the stuff that normally consumes one's thoughts during the average day. Somewhere in our evolutionary development must be a connection to chickens.

We scratch around at our feet, consumed with the consumables of life, attending to the immediate, and totally engaged with that most easily in focus. Looking up is usually an exercise of fear—the sky must be falling somehow somewhere. The chickens are so concerned with the ground they rarely exercise their capacity for flight. Over time, the power to fly atrophies. But we are and can be more and regain the power to fly, to see beyond the moment, to grasp the larger realm, and even to glimpse, as it is often offered us, the very Kingdom of God.

Let us take flight, to rise above the paltry and the poultry and see a grander vision for ourselves, our families, and our community of faith. We are accompanied by Angels, friends. Let us lift up our gaze and fly.

Philip +

Ye Olde Church of the Holy Spirit Holiday Shoppe

The Holiday Shoppe will feature handmade ornaments and crafts made by our most junior parish members to our most senior. Our teens will be selling wreaths that they have decorated themselves under the guidance of Pattie Bierwirth, our resident floral design specialist.

The Shoppe will be open after services in the Parish Hall on the following Sundays: November 23 & 30 and December 7. Baked goods and Holiday treats for the home may be purchased on the last Sunday.

If anyone is crafty, owns a scroll saw or is willing to help with the baked goods, please contact Julie Warren at 713-9418.

From the Deacon's Corner

Dear Seekers,

I can't believe that the season of fall is upon us. I pray that you will enjoy the cooler weather and the beauty of the trees and all their brilliance.

Thank you to all in the community who donated the women's clothing items that Jean Wallace and I took to the Bo Robinson Treatment Center in Trenton. My entire back seat was packed to the ceiling with clothing. Thank you again. I asked the Coordinator, Dr. Mims, what the women need the most and her response was white undergarments. So, when you are about shopping during the next several months and you find these items on sale, please consider purchasing them for the women at Bo Robinson.

These women have been just released from the Edna Mahan Correctional Facility in Clinton and have no clothing except the clothing on their back. They might not have had the support of family and friends, who would purchase or give them clothing. So unbelievably the need is great. Dr. Mims hugged both Jean Wallace and me as we left; she was so grateful for our donations.

I ask your prayers for The Rev. Gerry Scott, who is terminally ill with cancer. Gerry is the founder of The Scott House, a ministry for children who come from dysfunctional families where the parents can no longer take care of them because of some kind of abuse. This ministry is very dear to the hearts of many in our community. It truly was a blessed time (almost two years) that we spent with the babies and Gerry and Jean Scott.

I remain your Deacon,

Johnine

WORDS FROM OUR SENIOR WARDEN

As a parent, you're most likely familiar with putting the needs of your children ahead your own. This summer we were invited to a friend's lake house at Lake Ariel, Pa. for the weekend. The scenery was beautiful and peaceful, just what I needed. Our hosts were wonderful, and tried to make sure Alex & I got to enjoy some time for ourselves while our kids were occupied with fishing, swimming, and games. I did get to enjoy the start of a new book, although it didn't take long before the kids wanted me to join them in their fun. One thing the kids were waiting to experience was tubing on the back of a boat. I told them I would come on this adventure.

Due to the age of my kids, their new adventures can cause them to be timid and/or fearless. What they don't know is that their mother is quite fearless especially when it comes to thrill rides. When we go to an amusement park, we keep to their level rides and I just wait until the time when they can either join me on a roller coaster or be safe to watch me. This time at the lake, I let the kids take their turns on the tube as the boat pulled them along. The driver on the boat was great and patient as the kids wanted to speed up or slow down. I chimed in that I wanted a turn after the kids had experienced equal time in the tube. The kids were quite excited to see mom join in the fun. I told the driver to let the kids know how fast the boat could go with someone tubing on the back. What a blast! I felt like a kid with no worries. I stayed on the tube for quite awhile but then the speed & waves threw me off. The kids wailed in glee that mom was thrown off. For a change, I was a kid to them! My prim and proper demeanor crumbled as I told them to jump in and join me in the lake. It was an awesome feeling to let go. I must admit my personality can make it hard to let go when I think of all the "things" I have to do before the end of a day. I do admit that I ask God to help me with this. My kids are at this age for a short while, and reflecting with God helps me to balance what is important for my family and me.

I share this story as we start the new school year. Some of you have passed this stage, some are living it now, and some haven't needed to look ahead. But I think for all of us as we work on our own activities in the family schedules, take time to breathe and if you need some guidance; just ASK! He'll be listening.

Elizabeth vanVeldhuisen

Thank You

Engaging Angels

How is God working in your life and in the lives of the people you serve? There is still time to include your story about how God is uplifting you and others in your life in the "Engaging Angels" booklet that will be shared with members of the CHS community. No story too small or insignificant—your story can encourage and inspire others on their faith journey.

To tell your story, go to the church web site at <http://www.churchholyspirit.org> and select "Engaging Angels" on the home page. All stories should be submitted by September 30. Kimberly Borin, who is organizing the stories in the booklet will be happy to help you in any way, contact her at: storiesofourown@earthlink.net.

Welcome to the Episcopal Church: An overview of worship, mission, organization, and formation. Specifically for newcomers, but good for anyone interested in refreshing their appreciation for the Anglican Tradition.

Biblical Studies: Ongoing presentations of major biblical themes and their application to our lives today.

PULSE OF THE PARISH

Greetings to Alison Duryea of Glen Gardner who has been worshipping with us recently.

Best Wishes to Sarah (Bird) and Jesse Shive who were married on Saturday, July 5th at the Cathedral Church of the Nativity in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania. Father Philip presided at the wedding and was assisted by Deacon Johnine. Sarah is the daughter of parishioners Sally and Howard Bird.

Congratulations to parishioners Kristina and Stevan Thompson on the birth of a daughter, Kelsey Marie, on June 25th. She joins big sister Samantha.

Congratulations to Dalyn and Bruce Huntley on the birth of Kaden Sinclair on June 25th. Kaden joins big brothers Malcolm (age 7) and Rhys (age 2). The Huntley's recently moved to Annapolis, MD from High Bridge. Their new address is 985 St. Johns Drive, Annapolis, MD 21409. Kaden will be Baptized at Holy Spirit on September 7th at the 10:15 a.m. Service!

Condolences to the family of Stephen Raymond, a friend of the parish, whose funeral Mass was celebrated at CHS on July 29th. Also, Sincere Sympathy to the Flachmeyer family on the death of Maria Flachmeyer on August 9th in Germany. Maria is the mother of Thomas and grandmother of Kyle and Kari. May the dear departed rest in peace.

Address change: Parishioners Gail and Joe Karslo recently "downsized" and moved to an old home in Washington Borough and love it! Their new address is 23 Grand Avenue, Washington, NJ 07882 with the same phone number — 908-835-0302 and the same email address g.karslo6@comcast.net.
